Any motion to amend or to join additional parties shall be filed not later than thirty days after a rule, if any, from the Court sustaining the operative complaint (including any further amended complaint, if applicable), in whole or in part, in response to any motion to dismiss.

[Defendants' Proposal]

Note: Pursuant to Paragraph 3(C) of the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, the Court will deny a motion to dismiss as moot, without prior notice to the parties, if a plaintiff amends its pleading without objection from the defendant. The moving party may then (a) file an answer or (b) file a new motion to dismiss. In the event the moving party wishes to rely on its initially filed memorandum of law, the party may so indicate on its initially filed memorandum of law, the party may so indicate in its motion to dismiss the amended pleading and need not file the memorandum of law again.

Pursuant to Paragraph 2(K) of the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, parties may extend the deadlines set forth in Local Civil Rule 6.1 by an agreed-upon schedule, which shall govern as long as it is disclosed to the Court in a letter accompanying the initial motion. At the Initial Pretrial Conference, parties should come prepared to discuss a proposed briefing schedule for any anticipated motion.

Any motion to amend or to join additional parties shall be filed no later than

5. Initial disclosures pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be completed no later than January 19, 2023 [Plaintiffs' proposal].

Initial disclosures pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be completed no later than fourteen days after a ruling, if any, from the Court sustaining the operative complaint (including any further amended complaint, if applicable), in whole or in part, in response to any motion to dismiss [Defendants' Proposal].

6. All fact discovery is to be completed no later than May 5, 2023 [Plaintiffs' Proposal].

All fact discovery is to be completed no later than 180 days after a ruling, if any, from the Court sustaining the operative complaint (including any further amended complaint, if applicable), in whole or in part, in response to any motion to dismiss [Defendants' Proposal].

7. The parties are to conduct discovery in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Southern District of New York. The following interim deadlines may be extended by the parties on consent without application to the Court, provided that the parties meet the deadline for completing fact discovery set forth in Paragraph 6 above.

NOTE ON COVID-19 EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

Until further notice, and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(3) and (b)(4), all depositions may be taken via telephone, videoconference, or other remove means, and may be recorded by any reliable audio or audiovisual means. This does not dispense with the requirements set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(5), including the requirement that, unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the deposition be "conducted before an officer appointed or designated under Rule 28," and that the deponent be placed under oath by that officer. For avoidance of doubt, a deposition will be deemed to have been conducted "before" an officer so long as that officer attends the deposition via the same remote means (e.g., telephone conference call or video conference) used to connect all other remote participants, and so long as all participants (including the officer) can clearly hear and be heard by all other participants.

Nothing in the above-mentioned rule prevents parties from seeking to modify any pretrial schedule in light of the COVID-19 pandemic (or for any other good cause). Prior to seeking such relief, the parties must, as always, attempt to meet and confer (via remote means) in a good faith effort to reach agreement.

Parties are instructed to consult the Court's COVID-19 Emergency Individual Practices in Civil and Criminal Cases for additional guidance on procedures in place at this time.
